

INTEGRITY AS A COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE

How ethical leadership, procurement integrity, and collective business action can strengthen competitiveness and resilience

ENHANCING ACCOUNTABILITY

Funded by the European Union

SwissCham
Southern Africa – South Africa Chapter (SCSA-SAC)

PROGRAMME

Wednesday, 15 July 2026 | Sky Hotel, Sandton

Time	Activity	Presenter/Facilitator
Programme Director / Master of Ceremonies - Chrissy Dube (GGA-SARO)
08:30 – 09:00	Registration and Welcome Tea/Coffee/Muffins/Light Snacks	Hosted by Good Governance Africa
09:00 – 09:10	Opening Remarks: The Role of the Private Sector in Strengthening Accountability in South Africa	Ross Clarke , Team Leader, Enhancing Accountability Technical Assistance Facility
09:10 – 09:20	Welcome from the Business Community	Ms Khangi Khoza , President of SwissCham South Africa and Executive Chair of Swissport
09:20 – 09:42	Keynote Address: Corruption Avoidance for Sustainable Competitive Advantage – How Businesses Can Reduce Risk and Strengthen Integrity Systems	Dr Max Burger-Scheidlin , International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) Austria
09:42 – 10:05	Reflections: From State Capture to Competitive Integrity – Lessons for South African Business	Justice Raymond Zondo , Former Chief Justice of South Africa
10:05 – 10:30	Panel Discussion: Preventing Corruption in Public Procurement: Corporate Governance, Compliance Systems, and the Role of Whistleblowers	Karam Singh (GGA)
		Wayne Duvenage (OUTA)
		Bernard Agulhas (UFS)
		Justice Raymond Zondo
10:30 – 10:45	Questions and Interactive Discussion	Moderated by Lonwabo Patrick Kulati , CEO, GGA-SARO, including Dr Max Burger-Scheidlin , (ICC) Austria
10:45 – 10:55	Closing Reflections: From Integrity to Competitive Advantage	Deji Haastrup , Chairman, GGA-SARO
10:55 – 11:35	30 – 45 minutes networking – BRUNCH

Download the
IACCourt edition of GGA's
free quarterly publication,
Africa in Fact

Visit the International Campaign for the IACC

