

PROGRAMME

Wednesday, 15 July 2026 | Sky Hotel, Sandton

| Time                                                                | Activity                                                                                                                                                | Presenter/Facilitator                                                                                             |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Programme Director / Master of Ceremonies - Chrissy Dube (GGA-SARO) |                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                   |
| 14:00 – 14:30                                                       | Registration and WelcomeTea/Coffee/Light Snacks (savoury)                                                                                    | Hosted by Good Governance Africa                                                                                  |
| 14:30 – 14:40                                                       | Opening Remarks:The Role of the Private Sector in Strengthening Accountability in South Africa                                               | Francis Nyarai Ndende, Esq. , Technical Specialist, Enhancing Accountability Technical Assistance Facility |
| 14:40 – 14:50                                                       | Keynote Address:Corruption Avoidance for Sustainable Competitive Advantage – How Businesses Can Reduce Risk and Strengthen Integrity Systems | Dr Max Burger-Scheidlin , International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) Austria                                  |
| 14:50 – 15:05                                                       | Special Address:From State Capture to Implementation – The Next Phase of South Africa's Accountability Journey                               | Justice Raymond Zondo                                                                                      |
| 15:05 – 15:30                                                       | Panel Discussion:Beyond Ethics: Corporate Accountability, Procurement Integrity, and Compliance Reform in South Africa                       | Dr Max Burger-Scheidlin , (ICC) Austria                                                                    |
|                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                         | Wayne Duvenage (OUTA)                                                                                      |
|                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                         | Karam Singh (GGA)                                                                                          |
|                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                         | Bernard Agulhas (UFS)                                                                                      |
| 15:30 – 15:40                                                       | Audience Questions and Reflections                                                                                                                      | Moderated by Fatima Rawat , Senior Ethics Subject Matter Expert, The Ethics Institute                      |
| 15:40 – 16:00                                                       | Closing Reflections:Building Collective Action Between Business, Civil Society, and Government, and Next Steps                               | Dr Ruth Kolevsohn , Executive Director, Governance Programmes GGA                                          |

Download the
IACCourt edition of GGA's
free quarterly publication,
Africa in Fact

Visit the International Campaign
for the IACC

ENHANCING ACCOUNTABILITY

Funded by the European Union

